

Sherman Lee Carter, Sr.

April 29, 1945 - July 2, 2025

Sherman Lee Carter was born April 29, 1945, in Eustis, Florida to the proud parents, James Carter, Sr., and Inez Smith Carter. He accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age.

He attended and graduated from Eustis Vocational High School. After graduation, he joined the United States Army on May 15, 1967. During his service, he received a National Defense Service Medal and Sharpshooter (Rifle M-16). He served his country during the Vietnam War and was discharged under honorable conditions on July 14, 1972, thereafter, receiving the honor of a Disabled Veteran. Later, he joined Alcoholics Anonymous and became a sponsor for others. Sherman's saying was, "If I could touch one life, then my living would not be in vain."

He attended Gethsemane Baptist Church for many years under the pastorage of the late Rev. A. L. Russell.

Sherman married Mary Carter, and to this union, one (1) child was born, Angelicue M. Armstrong. Once he returned home, he met Sheila Reynolds, and two (2) children were born, Sherman Carter, Sr., and Shandon.

On July 2, 2025, Sherman made his peaceful transition to join his parents, James Carter, Sr., and Inez Smith Carter; his sibling, Albert Carter, Agnes

Atkins, Catherine Johnson, Josephine Harris, James Carter, Jr., Arnie "Top" Carter, and Mae Rose Carter; nephews, Samuel Smith and Edgar Harris

He leaves to cherish his memories: children, Angelicue M. Armstrong, Sherman Carter, Jr., and Shandon Carter; grandchildren, Essence Carter, and Tempest Carter; nephews, L a w r e n c e Harris, Jr. (Gessner), James Carter hervl), Germini A. Carter, Tony Carter (Ayesha), Joser Carter, and Johnny Engram, Jr.; nieces, Eunice Orr, Linda Sullivan, Wendolyn Conner, Inez Jones-Hightower (Thaddeus), Lanaye Wilson (Cedric), LaFaye Jones, Kerener Carter, and Shelley Carter; a devoted friend, Dan Martin, and a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends.
