

Shirley Ann Jones

September 6, 1947 - November 20, 2025

Shirley Ann Jones was born September 6, 1947, in Columbia, South Carolina, to parents Archie McLemore and Ethel Jones. She was later reared and raised by her parents-in-heart, James and Gladys Denny. She graduated from Twin City High School.

In her early years, Shirley was a faithful member of Wesley Chapel while residing in South Carolina. In 1969, while living in South Carolina, she met and married Robert Jones.

Shirley was employed at Rickard Nursing Home and the Burlington Factory in South Carolina. Later, she obtained employment as a cook with Roosevelt Anderson for approximately 15 years before her retirement.

After retiring, Shirley moved to Florida and purchased a home. Shirley provided love and care for her mother, Gladys Denny at her home until the Lord saw fit to call her home.

In her free time, Shirley enjoyed playing cards, cooking, doing puzzles, and watching her soap operas. She also loved baking cakes, but most of all, she enjoyed spending time with and loving her family. Shirley was also a pro at shooting pool.

Shirley was preceded in death by her fathers, Archie McLemore and James

Denny, and her mothers, Ethel Jones and Gladys Denny; her sister, Sarah Hartley; and her daughters, Barbara Denny and Stacy Tolen.

Left to cherish her memory...her loving Children: son, Anthony Denny (Lynn) of Leesville, South Carolina; her daughters: Lauretha Denny (Harold) of Zellwood, Florida, Juanita Brown (Lester) of Johnston, South Carolina, and Rosalind Jones (Edward) of Mount Dora, Florida; brother, Leon Gantt of Ridge Spring, South Carolina; 10 Grandchildren, 24 Great-Grandchildren; 1 Niece, 3 Nephews, and a host of cousins, other loving relatives, and friends.
