Sophie Nadine Smallhorne was born July 11, 1970, in Spanish Town, St. Catherine, Jamaica W.I. Affectionately called 'Soph', she was the first child of Joan Hall.

Sophie was a daughter, sister, cousin, and a loving member of her family. Her family did not focus on her limitations but celebrated her loving and vivacious spirit. She loved her family; she loved to laugh, sing, going to the beach; and she found joy in watching cowboy shows or movies.

Sophie was a loving soul. She always wanted to know if "you alright". More than anything, Sophie loved the Lord and to praise him in dance. She gave her heart to Jesus and was baptized in Brooklyn, New York, at Little Jerusalem House of Prayer. She later became a member of the House of Prayer, Praise & Power COGIC in 2013.

Sophie was a living testimony and, she was one of God's special children. When she was born, the doctor told her mother that she wouldn't live to see her second birthday due to her having illnesses at birth. Oh, how Sophie has surpassed that diagnosis by living life to the fullest for 54 years.

Sophie is preceded in death by her grandmother who cared for her dearly, Loretta Brown, grandfather, Victor Brown, and other relatives.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: her Mother and Father, Joan and Stanley Hall; Brother, Dwight Hall (Odeth Labrado-Hall); Sister, Lady Simone Butts (Supt. Richard A. Butts), Brother, Phillip Hall, and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, church family, and many friends of the family.
