Stanhope Edward Simpson, Sr., affectionately known as "Stan", was born January 7, 1951 in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica to parents, King George and Violet Wiltshire.

As a young man, Stanhope immigrated to the United States in the 1980's in pursuit of the American dream. He dedicated many years of his life to working at Disney and Conoley Citrus, where he was known for his strong work ethic and unwavering commitment to excellence.

After settling in Winter Haven, Florida, Stan married his first wife, Gwen with whom he had a daughter, Barakah. Years later, he moved to Winter Garden, Florida and found love once again with his second wife, Versie, with whom he had two sons, Stanhope, Jr. and Stanford.

He also welcomed his daughters, Candita, Natyna, Yvonne, and Mildred from Jamaica to live with him, providing them with a loving and caring home as they established themselves in their new country.

Stan was a pillar of strength and support for his family, always putting their needs above his own. He leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and resilience that will continue to inspire all who knew him.

A Time to Rest
