Stella Clyburn Gregory was born June 2, 1946 to Mable Neal and Sonny Cook. Stella Gregory knew no strangers. Everyone she came in contact with, witnessed her unconditional love and wisdom. She was well known for her cooking, especially baking and hospitality; she had an open door spirit to anyone. Her home was the sanctuary of love as she was a very compassionate woman as well as a God fearing woman. She honored the fact that she was able to witness the birth of her great grandchildren. Her favorite saying was "He blessed me to bless others", That was her way of giving back. She was preceded in death by her mother, Mable Neal, father, Sonny Cook and daughter, Linda Thomas.

Stella leaves to cherish precious memories to her ex-husband: Richard Gregory of Charlotte, North Carolina; sons, Cordell Gregory of Charlotte, North Carolina and Nathaniel Gregory of Orlando, Florida; daughter, Melonda Fulton of McKinney, Texas; sisters: Ruby Davis and Gail Johnson, both of Charlotte, North Carolina; brothers: Nathan Neal, Carl Neal, Raymond Neal, Keith Neal, Stanley Neal and Caleb Neal, all of Charlotte, North Carolina; six grandchildren: eleven great, grandchildren: a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews other loving relatives and friends.
