

Sylvia Pearson Brown

December 10, 1950 - September 7, 2021

Sylvia Pearson Brown was born December 10, 1950 in Sanford, Florida to Nathaniel Montgomery and Beatrice Lee Baker.

Sylvia attended Midway Elementary School and then moved to Crooms High School, but graduated from East High School in Rochester, New York. She lived and worked in Rochester, New York for seven years before returning to Florida.

Sylvia married her beloved husband Bernard Brown in 1978. She and her husband were Ordained Ministers and she served on the board of End Time Ministries located in Tampa, Florida for over 10 years.

Sylvia was an awesome Mother, Wife, Sister, Grandmother and Great grandmother. She would say her greatest joy was having Friday Night Bible Study and table talk with her grandchildren. She imparted so much knowledge into them and left a legacy of strong faith in God and His Son, Jesus. Sylvia also served as a devoted prayer intercessor at her church home when she lived in Port St. Lucie, Florida and continued to be a strong intercessor for many who grew to know and love her.

Sylvia had only lived in Leesburg, Florida for a little over a year before transitioning to her home in heaven.

Sylvia is preceded in death by her husband, Bernard Brown and parents: Nathaniel Montgomery and Beatrice Lee Baker.

Left to cherish her memory: Children: James Jackson of West Palm Beach, FL, Cassandra Thomas of Port St. Lucie, FL, Bernita Brown of Orlando, FL, Michael B. Brown of West Palm Beach, FL, Katrina Ortiz (Mario) of Fruitland Park, FL, and King Soloman Brown of Oklahoma City, OK; Siblings: Hattie Willis of Eustis, FL, Henrietta Brown (George) of Cairo, GA, Geraldine Callans (William) of Orlando, FL, Lillian Wright of Deltona, FL, Ronnie Jamison of Washington, DC, Gary Montgomery of Live Oak, FL, Junior Montgomery, Eric Montgomery and Enoch Montgomery, all of Miami, FL, and Tiffany Montgomery of North Carolina; god-daughter, Chekena Rhoden; godson, Carl Soto (Nidia); and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
