

Mrs. Sylvia Rolle Herbert

January 6, 1957 - December 28, 2017

Into each life some rain falls, sometimes it's misty, refreshing then it may rain and may become very dark; but after the storm passes over, He puts a rainbow in the sky.

Into the life of Mr. George Arlington Rolle and Mrs. Willie Mae Rolle a mist of rain refreshingly blessed them with the birth of a baby girl on January 6, 1957, they named her Sylvia Marie Rolle.

Sylvia was a very unique, happy, outgoing little girl who kept her loving parents, attentive with joy. Maternal grandparents: the late Willie Lou Weeks, paternal grandparents: Aaron and Sarah Rolle.

Sylvia was a product of the Orange County Public Schools system and was a graduate of the class of nineteen seventy-six of Oak Ridge High School Orlando, Florida. She also received her certification to be a Medical Assistant from Career Training Institute.

Sylvia worked in the medical field and ended her career as a Quality Assurance Inspector for Nephron Pharmaceuticals. Sylvia loved cooking meals especially baking for family and friends gatherings. She also loved shopping at Wal-Mart, Dollar Tree, and etotn World because she was a master seamstress. Above all she loved taking care of her dear mother, "Willie Mae".

However, the apple of her eye was her son, Anthony Herbert. She loved doting over him.

On Thursday, December 28, 2017, Sylvia transcended from her earthly tent to her heavenly home.

She leaves to share her memory: A loving and doting father and mother, George Arlington Rolleo Willie Mae Rolle' One Son: Anthony Herbert, Two Brothers: George Arlington Rolle, Jr. (Julie)' Kenneth Aaron Rolte (Angela), Orlando, Florida. Four Sisters:

Rosa Lee Upshaw (Reverend William) Tampa, Florida; Alma Lee Daniels (Riak) Norfolk, Virginia, Sandra Mae Gregory (Sylvester) Slidell, Louisiana, Barbara Louise Rolle, Orlando, Florida; Nephews: Patrick, Michael, Abram, Jeffrey' Edmond, Eric' Bridley, Kenneth.
