“ I just now learned that Tiara is no longer with us. Tiara was one of my students at UCF, and I remember her as being bright, conscientious, and kind (and a proud mommy to her beautiful little girl). UCF memorialized her today in an "Eternal Knights" ceremony. My prayers and condolences to her family. --Beth Young

“ Tiara and I worked at Hands Together back in 06 and through out our time there she was always so caring and helpful. I remember coming to the house to see Alyvia for the for first time, she was such a proud mother. To hear of her death brings great sorrow to my soul as she touched so many lives with her warm heart. My prayers go out to you all, and I ask God to continue to be with you through out this trying time.

“ My condolences to the family of this beautiful young lady, I can remember all the week-ends you spent at our home with my daughter Dee Dee when you were younger. I went in my photo books and found all the pictures of you guys and that put a smile on my face. As you got older and began your journey as a women and mother you may have been out of sight but never out of our minds or hearts. Every time I would run into you I would give you the biggest hug, that smile would brighten the most gloomiest day. RIP sweetheart with love the Jackson Family-Byron, Gail, Dee Dee, Rico, Gerome and Willie

“ This website is weird. I tried to post a photo of Tiara with the caption using her Twitter name. I couldn't...I think it's sad how this young lady was such a bright light and she was gone in a flash, on a lone night at a rather unknown intersection in Apopka.

“ I'm in still in shock at the unexpected death of a good person. Tiara was always active and lively. Which makes it so difficult to comprehend that she is gone. She was passionate and on more than one occasion took time to make me feel special. It feels like not too long ago she was telling me happy birthday. To anyone who knew her I share your grief. I feel blessed to have known her. And offer my condolences to her family and close friends. I am thankful for the small amount of time that I was able to spend with her. And I believe that God is the all knowing and has embraced her in his kingdom.

Gone but not forgotten. Rest In Peace Tiara Mack.

“ You are in my thoughts as you find your way through this. I am praying for your healing, with the passage of time. I know you will miss her. I send my understanding and consolation. I know that the strain, the pain, will eventually ease. May your pleasant memories sustain and comfort you. You are in my thoughts. God grant you the strength and peace to comfort you in your time of need.

*Dear Lord, please comfort those in grief,
Love them, lift them, give relief
For loss they've suffered, sadness felt;
Make this sorrow slowly melt.
Lord, let happy memories ease,
Creating peace like a gentle breeze,
And as you help them make it through.
Draw them closer, Lord, to you.*
