

Tiffeny Wade Kombate

March 25, 1986 - November 29, 2025

God blessed the world with Tiffeny Wade Kombate on March 25, 1986, in Thomasville, Georgia, born to Michael Wade Sr. and Dyane DeLoach. From her earliest days, Tiffeny was vivacious, spirited, and filled with a light that hinted at the extraordinary woman she would one day become. She grew up loving deeply, learning eagerly, and leading with grace and excellence. At a young age, Tiffeny accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior, a choice that shaped her path and guided her every step. Her faith remained her foundation, and she served the Lord with steadfast devotion throughout her earthly journey.

Tiffeny made her family proud as a National Honor Student and graduated from Thomas County Central High School in 2004. In 2009, she fulfilled her dream of becoming a Registered Nurse after graduating from Darton College of Health Professionals in Albany, GA, beginning a career that would touch lives near and far. She later earned her Bachelor's degree from Grand Canyon University, further strengthening her devotion to excellence in healthcare.

Tiffeny loved to travel, and her nursing career beautifully aligned with that passion. As a travel nurse, she cared for communities across the nation from Hawaii to New York, and countless places in between each one left brighter because she had been there. Whether across the country or around the world, she formed meaningful and lasting friendships everywhere she went. Her radiant smile, gentle spirit, and comforting presence lingered long after she moved on to her next assignment.

Always striving to grow and serve others, Tiffeny earned her Master's degree as a Family Practice Nurse Practitioner from South University in Savannah, Georgia. During the COVID pandemic, her courage and compassion led her to New York, where she served as an essential worker and played a vital role in opening and managing a COVID unit for severely ill patients. She later continued her calling by completing a Post-Master Certificate in Psychology from Florida State University in Tallahassee, Florida. Achieving Dual Board Certification as both a Family Nurse Practitioner and Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner became one of her greatest professional joys. Her family, friends, and community celebrated her determination and shared deeply in her pride.

As a Dual Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner, Tiffeny poured her heart into caring for others. Her compassion, empathy, and skill touched countless lives. Patients, colleagues, and friends knew her as someone who led with wisdom, kindness, and immense warmth. She embraced challenges as opportunities to grow, refine her gifts, and uplift everyone around her.

Outside of her profession, Tiffeny embraced life with joy, curiosity, and a contagious enthusiasm. She delighted in traveling, cooking, painting, sharing meals, and spending precious time with her loved ones. Her greatest blessing and the role she cherished most was being a mother. Becoming a mother filled her with immeasurable love and purpose, and she treasured every moment with her daughter. Tiffeny's vibrant spirit and generous heart left a lasting imprint on everyone fortunate enough to know her.

Tiffeny is survived by her devoted husband, Patrick L. Kombate; her beloved daughter, Zuri Kombate; and she remains a cherished bonus mother to three additional children.

She also leaves behind her loving mother, Dyane DeLoach; father, Michael Wade Sr. (Adrieon); Darren Copeland (Jackie); her sister, Courtney Wade; her brothers, Michael Wade Jr. and Drew Wade; as well as a wide and deeply connected circle of blended siblings and family. Tiffeny shared a beautiful bond with her sister-friends, whose unwavering love and support uplifted her throughout her life and earthly journey.

Tiffeny's legacy of love, faith, service, and joy will forever live on in the countless hearts she touched. Though she has departed this earthly life, her light continues to shine gently, beautifully, and endlessly through every soul she blessed. Her spirit and legacy will live on most profoundly through her daughter, Zuri Kombate.

John 14:27: "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

“Tip was one of those rare people in my life who remained constant and true. She loved me enough to correct me, even when I wanted her to take my side—especially when it came to my husband. She’d look at me and say, “Aht aht sis, you’re wrong,” and she meant it with love every time.

She was more than a friend; she was my sister. Every member of my family loved her deeply. She built a relationship with God that was real and unwavering, and she helped many of us—myself included—find our way back when we were running. That’s the beautiful thing about God: He uses His people for His glory. And in her life, God truly got the glory.

I will miss her every single day for the rest of my life, but I’m at peace knowing she earned her salvation. That gives my heart comfort. She never ended a conversation or text message without saying, “I love you sis,” so sis I love you always and forever. Although there is a missing link now you will always be in my heart. Sleep peacefully, as you would call us, “The Aunties/Girlfriends” have it from here 💜

“ Tiffeny was such a Beautiful Young Lady inside and out with a beautiful smile. She always had something sweet to say when you see her. Her little girl is her twin. I remember when she was that age, she was always so respectful and sweet! 🥺 Dyane and Mike I know you will miss her dearly along with the rest of the family, always know that y'all did and awesome job raising her with the Lord guidance and she showed it, Tiffeny was such a strong woman in the lord. I didn't see her or talked to her daily but the encouraging words she shared and the faith she had let me know that she really trusted and believed in the lord. Stay strong and keeping trusting that you will see your beautiful daughter again! 🤔🥺 We love y'all and you and the family have our sincere condolences and prayers. Nita & Ronell.

“ Since 4th grade...my forever girl. Tip, you've been a solid rock in my life since we met back in the 4th grade when you walked up and I invited you to play with the group. Your smile would light up the darkest room. Whew, I don't think there are enough pages to write about our high school and ABAC shenanigans,lol....Sis, the way I'm missing you is indescribable, but I take great joy in knowing we discussed God and your spiritual outlook, and based off our discussion my heart knows that you are resting in the bosom of our Lord. Don't you worry about a thing down here because your sisters got it from here. Our forever link! I love you Tip💕💕
