“ Tim was the best guy I ever met in the Wakesurf World in 2009 he gave me my first real board sponsorship and everyone who followed after me. He introduced me into a sport that was full of support and love I got to experience first hand when I flew to Florida to meet him, his family, and the rest of the team riders. He even took me to China in 2009 with him so I could see first hand where big name brands like ronix made their boards and so many others. He took me to Costa Rica for the first time and he was surfing right by me the first time I caught my first ocean wave. He was such a fun guy and I'm so thankful to have met him and the influence he had over me and my wakesurf career. I will miss him deeply.
