

Timothy M. Carmichael

May 14, 1961 - March 30, 2021

Timothy M. Carmichael was born on May 14, 1961 in Orlando, Florida to parents, Gordon Carmichael and Carrie L. Carmichael. Tim, as he was affectionately called, had many talents and interests. Athletically, he showed interest in baseball while in Junior High. Tim was a gifted long distance runner and while attending Edgewater High School and college at Grambling State University, he participated on the cross country team. Tim was a gifted mechanic and could repair anything on a car. His mechanical skills came into play later in life after becoming an accomplished roofer and cement finisher. Tim was a born leader with excellent people skills and on many of the jobs he worked, he would always rise to the level of a supervisor. Tim kept up with the latest fashions and you could always find a "GQ" Magazine lying around his apartment and as a result he dressed sharply. Tim loved music and while attending Howard Junior High, he played the trumpet in the band. He was a hopeless romantic and tended to lean towards the slow romantic songs. One of his favorite songs was "I Stand Accused" by Isaac Hayes. Tim never married however, he dated many ladies throughout his life and he was loyal and kind to all. Tim had a heart of compassion and was loved by all who knew and loved him. He was preceded in death by his Father, Gordon Carmichael; Mother, Carrie L. Carmichael; Brothers: Claude Carmichael and Harry Carmichael and Sister, Yvonne Campbell. He leaves to cherish his memory: Sister, Tonja Carmichael Butler; and a host of Nieces, Nephews, other Loving Relatives and Friends.
