Tommy Lugene Holman was born in Dawson, Georgia on October 15, 1953 to Samuel "S. T." Leary, Sr. and Mary Ella Holt Holman. Tommy was the fifth child of twelve children.

As a teenager because of his mother's untimely demise, Tommy moved to Hagerstown, Maryland to live with his oldest brother. Shortly thereafter, he moved to Orlando, Florida to live with his aunt. He attended school at George Washington Carver High School.

As a young man, Tommy was united in holy matrimony to Ira Littles, to that union two children were born. He later met and married Kimberly Holman. Tommy was a dedicated worker for the City of Orlando where he supervised and retired with high achievements in the Parks and Recreation Department. After retiring he continued his journey of helping others by working at Kids Café, his daughter's home daycare and son's catering business. Tommy had a heart for anyone that needed help especially children. He was a true sports fan. He played for the city league and was a big Gator fan. “ I will always remember your sense of humor, your smile, your laughter and the way you played basketball. These things put the light in your eyes that drew others near and the reason I held you so dear, my cousin - my brother. Rest in Peace.
