

Valorie Burt Steadman

September 30, 1964 - February 4, 2024

Valorie Burt Steadman was born September 30, 1964, to Charlie Burt and Bessie Mae Brinson in Okahumpka, Florida. She received the Holy Ghost at an early age while attending the House of God Church, Okahumpka and was also a member of House of God Church, Leesburg for many years. She loved to sing, and her favorite song was “His Eye Is On The Sparrow.”

Valorie was a graduate of Leesburg High School where she served in the Band for four years as well as the AFROTC for four years. She received her Bachelor in Arts Degree from Warner University and was employed and retired after thirty (30) years of service from the State of Florida as an ESS Supervisor.

Valorie was preceded in death by her Father, Charlie Burt.

She leaves to mourn, yet cherish her life and many memories: her loving Mother, Bessie Mae Brinson of Leesburg, Florida; Husband, Carter Steadman of Eustis, Florida; Daughters: Dayna Copeland (Brandon) of Brandon, Florida, Traci Brown (Chauncey) of Eustis, Florida, and Shanece Miller of Leesburg, Florida; 4 Sisters: Alicia Brinson of Summer field, Florida, Lorrie Brinson of Ruskin, Florida, Camisha Smith (Marcus), and Camela Burt of; 2 Brothers: Gerard Brinson (Teanena) of Ocala, Florida and Terrell Jones of Leesburg, Florida; 9 Grandchildren: Areonna, Aniyah, A'Zariya, A' Zoriya, Jakaiyan, Ja'Zarian, Hikim, Haidan, and Judah; and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, and other sorrowing friends.
