“ Every Critical Care team member at Advent Health Orlando should be posting their sympathies in honor of this wonderful person Velma Montgomery for working so hard on all the areas assigned her each shift. She was a welcoming warmth to each family who had a loved one in a critical situation. She had the best bear hugs. I am truly sorry to her children for the loss of their mother. God bless you. She spoke of you often. Kathy Mawer

“ Lord where do I begin Aunt Bunny your smile, your hugs, your kisses our talks that NO ONE knew about. My biggest support team in anything I done. There when I gave birth to my kids. There when I loss my son kept telling me God didn't bring me this far to leave me. Every time you seen me you always say how proud you are of me. Auntie this has really been a very hard pill to swallow lately I miss you so much. I know when you seen my son you hug him & gave him a BIG kiss from you & me. Auntie you were love so much & continue to watch over ALL of us. Auntie SIP until we meet again
