

Verma Jean Elizabeth Evans

September 26, 1932 - July 9, 2025

Verma Jean Elizabeth was born September 26, 1932 in Adel, Georgia to John Ward, Sr. and Johnnie Jackson Ward. She grew up in Adel, Georgia, attending the Cook County Training School where she developed a strong foundation that guided her Amelia, Alberta, Patrice, Regina, and Bobby, Jr.

Her commitment to her faith and community was evident in her lifelong membership at Greater Zion Missionary Baptist Church. Verma's relentless smile and infectious love for life will be truly missed.

Verma's favorite pastimes were spending quality time with her family, and she also loved to travel.

She truly loved the Lord, and her unwavering faith truly showed. Verma's enduring legacy is the love and light she showed with and to all who knew her.

On July 9, 2025, Verma peacefully transitioned from this earthly temple into eternal rest.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Bobby Evans, Sr.; son, Bobby Evans, Jr.; father, John Ward, Sr.; mother, Johnnie Jackson Ward; brothers: Thomas Ward, John Ward, Jr., Charles Ward, Billy Ward, and Lenora Ward; and sister, Gloria Byron.

Left to Cherish her memory...Her loving Children: Ernest Henry, Jr. (Mechelle) of Coleman, Florida, Amelia Shaw (C.W., Sr.) of Valdosta, Georgia, Alberta Graham of Wildwood, Florida, Patrice Mikell (Lewis) of Leesburg, Florida, and Regina Evans of Leesburg, Florida; Grandchildren: Terry Henry, Eric Mathis, Reginard Mathis (Freddie), Amelia Turner (Ray) C.W. Shaw, Jr., Lawanda Graham, Hope Brown, Dominique Mikell (Nicole), Destiny Mikell, Jeremy Evans (Tye), Mercedes Weatherspoon, and Lekira Hepburn; a host and great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
