“ My heart felt condolences to the family for the loss of Ms. V. She was a gentle spirit, a hard working woman and a light in my life. She is now an angel of the highest order. In her frailty, she sought perfection. Life and choices aren't perfect. She loved you all despite her and your choices. May peace and love prevail.

“ One of my fondest memory of my friend and classmate Vernetia is when she and I along with another friend were going to be the singing group the three degrees in a talent show. I can see us now rehearsing at vernetia's house we had so much fun. She will be truly missed. Rest in peace my dear friend and may God comfort the family at this time.
