

Vincent Earl Bradley

July 11, 1952 - December 4, 2021

Vincent E. Bradley was born July 11, 1952 to Beatrice L. Benjamin and Richard H. Bradley in Opa-Locka, Florida. Vincent attended Miami Carol City High School where he participated in both the band and played basketball. He graduated in 1970. Vincent met Shirley and they were married in 1992 and resided in Orlando, Florida. Vincent became a father to Shirley's two children Joy and Cameron Hickmon. This young family had lots of fun together. They later became the parents of a third child, Curtis. The family continued living in Orlando, while living in Orlando Vincent decided he would work as a taxi driver. He enjoyed meeting people from all over the world. Some very famous basketball players i.e. Horace Grant and Anfernee Simons. He also enjoyed meeting other people and just enjoyed having casual conversations with them. Vincent had many other stories that he shared with his family from time to time. Vincent was preceded in death by his parents, Beatrice L. Benjamin and Richard H. Bradley. He leaves to cherish precious memories to his loving spouse, Shirley Walker of Orlando, Florida; children, sons: Curtis Bradley (Vanessa) of Orlando, Florida and Cameron Hickmon (LaShan) of Orlando, Florida; daughter: Joy Coasey of Snellville, Georgia; siblings: Bruce Bradley (Cyrilla) of Plantation, Florida, Vaughn Bradley of Miami, Florida and Rene Bowers (Kenneth) of West Palm Beach, Florida; thirteen grandchildren; two great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
