

Virgie Fahie

June 24, 1937 - May 10, 2014

Virgie Fahie, was born June 24, 1937 to Anthony Stout and Rachel Tomar.

Virgie attended grammar school in Tortola, British Virgin Islands through the seventh grade. In her early years of her adult life she moved from Tortola, British Virgin Islands to St. Thomas, US Virgin Islands. In St. Thomas she held jobs at Miller Manor and Nazareth High School. Virgie enjoyed working in the hospitality industry. In 1976 she moved to Plymouth, Florida and worked at Zellwood Station for 20 years and then retired. However, she decided to continue to be employed and held a job a Errol Estate for an additional five years until she became ill.

Virgie married the love of her life James Olonzo Fahie in 1989. Upon her departure from the workforce due to illness in 2001, he faithfully and dutifully took care of her until he no longer could in September of 2009.

Virgie loved the Lord, and was a very active member in her church at Pentecostal Overcoming Holiness Church of Apopka, Florida. As a pastime she enjoyed gardening and cooking, but most of all she enjoyed her family and friends. Virgie had seven children; fifteen grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren.

Virgie was preceded in death by her husband James Olonzo Fahie, father,

Anthony Stout, mother, Rachel Tomar, son David Fahie and brother Jim George.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: six children, Dalton Turnbull (Cheryl), Carol Todman, Claudette Fahie, Candia Hickey (Claude) Worrell Valentine (Rhonda) and Tyree Valentine; brothers, Dennis Tomar, Isaac Stout and Frances Jennings; grandchildren, Chinikqua Maddox, Shackeba Maddox, Abia Todman, Stephanie Joseph, Kisha Martin, Latricia Thompson, Katrina Thompson, Shenita Malloy, Tanisha Thompson, Tyree Valentine, Jr., Monica Ofori, David Ofori, Worrell Valentine, Jr., Riyah Valentine and Rhanita Valentine; special cousins, Mabel Frett and Ella Lettsome; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and sorrowing friends. She will truly be missed
