“ I am at a lost for the words but what is there to say when a child of God has transition from this world of pain and heartache to be present with the Lord. Vivian will be greatly missed on 19th street, she truly was a neighbor, always the same person all the time. I remember her when she was lil sister as a young girl, Vip in her teenage years and then as Vivian , simply a good person. My prayers are with this family but as true believers of God , well I know he's got you all. Amen to God's word.

My condolences to the family. I last times I seen Vivian she was in bed bath and beyond and I gave her hug and she told me she was going to be alright and she was going to beat it. I told her to keep the faith. She will be missed.
