“ To the family of Vivian Webb. She truly will be missed. I among others have known Vivian all my life, I admired her learning how to operate Facebook among other internet options. Always learning. I remember as a very small child, on Sundays after church, they would come over and we as children would take turns making homemade ice cream. After, I got my cosmetology license, I shadowed with her, and she taught me some beneficial lessons of the craft. When she would see us, she would say there is Homer and Ollie. This is a tough one. But, she is at peace. Blessings
