

Wanda Delores Waller

April 4, 1963 - October 29, 2020

Wanda D. Waller affectionately known as “Wanda- Jean” was born to Tessie Campbell and John Moss, Sr. on April 4, 1963 in the town of Lenox, New York. She was raised in Apopka, Florida and was a beautiful mother, sister, wife and friend. Wanda was best known for her infectious laugh and fabulous sense of style. She was a true sweetheart who could light up any room she entered. People were naturally drawn to her and she was compassionate about everything she wanted to do. She was resourceful with an entrepreneurial spirit, who never let any obstacle get in her way. If there was no way, Wanda would make a way! She will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her. Wanda leaves to cherish her precious memories four daughters: Wahkuna Baldwin, Latesha Brown, Jocelyn Brown and Melody Brown; four siblings: Patricia Campbell, Jeffery Campbell, Angela Campbell and John Moss Jr.; five grandchildren: Yazmine Brown, Sidra Walker, Jayla Chambers, Justin Chambers and Naimah Muhammad along with a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives and friends.

“ *To the Daughter's of Wanda:
Carry a cross in your pocket as a simple reminder of SHE, As the fact SHE loves you no matter where SHE may be. The little cross is not magic or a good luck charm, When you need comfort hold it near your heart and cross your arms. Stick together my ANGELS no matter who nor what, Somedays will longer than others and some too much. GOD loves you dearly and your mother do too, Guess who else loves you...Aunt Rease and her crew.* 🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰
