

William Walter McQune Johnson

August 23, 1966 - February 22, 2019

William Walter McQune Johnson was born August 23, 1966 in Walterboro, South Carolina. He came to live with his grandmother Lizzie McPherson and later moved to Raeford, North Carolina where he attended South Hoke Elementary and Hoke County High School.

He grew up into a young man who loved to work. He had great work ethics, he was always on time and only missed work when it was absolutely beyond his control. Later in life he drove his aunt Eunice Massey to many preaching engagements, she only had to say where and when, and Will or Wibo as his family and friends called him was always on time. William was an ordained Minister of the Gospel.

Later in life he moved to Connecticut, then back to North Carolina. In recent years he moved back to Orlando, Florida. Will loved music and he loved to sing. Will was a very charismatic man, never met a stranger. Everybody to Will was Cuz, Nephew, Sis, Mom or Unc. He loved people and exemplified that with the way he lived.

Will "WIBO" You are most greatly loved and will be greatly missed by all whose life you touched. That heavenly infectious Laugh - Sleep my friend My brother, My cousin, Nephew and most of all "God's Son"
