“ Ebby and I were close friends in the late 1970's. In the early 1980's, I went in Labor with my son, I called Ebby who was residing in the same Apartment Complex for assistance. Without hesitation, Ebby took me to the hospital and stayed until my delivery to make sure my son and I were alright. If it were not for Ebby helping me, I don't know what would have happened to me or my child. Ebby was the type of person that truly justifies the old saying, " a friend in need is truly a friend in deed". My family and I will sincerely miss you, My Good Friend. May your Soul rest in peace until we meet again.

“ Denise Holliday - I remember when William hosted the Hunt Family Reunion in Orlando Florida and I really enjoyed myself. William was the most gracious host and he looked just like his father Uncle William Earl.
