

Willie Mae Buggs

August 27, 1916 - August 28, 2013

"To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven."
Eccl. 3:1

Willie Mae Buggs was born August 27, 1916 in Arlington, Georgia to the late Richard and Josephine Jackson. The youngest of 15 children, she received her education from the public schools in Calhoun County Georgia.

In 1947, she was baptized into the church of Christ by Brother Marshall Keeble and Brother F.L. Thompson, in a 3-week special tent meeting in Winter Garden, Florida. Later, she moved to Miami and placed membership with the Liberty City Church of Christ where Brother F.L. Thompson was the minister. After a period of time she moved to Opalocka, Florida and placed membership with the Magnolia Park Church of Christ, where she was a devoted and faithful member for over 48 years.

She retired from the South Florida State Hospital in 1981 after working for many years as a professional nurse caring for the needs of others. She became known affectionately as "Ma Buggs" by both staff and patients.

In 1993, she moved to Orlando to be near her immediately family. While here she worshiped with the 10th Street Church of Christ in Apopka, Florida. Later, she placed her membership with the Church of Christ at West Orlando where the minister is Bro. Charles Orr, Sr., where she remained very faithful until her demise. She was loved by the members and became good friends with many of the sisters.

Sister Buggs is survived by: Lou Sr. & Mae Bryant, Phillip Williams, Darrell Humes, and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins throughout Florida, New York, Pennsylvania, Washington and California.

She was and is loved dearly and will be missed very much.
