

Willie Ed Harpe

January 30, 1954 - October 14, 2025

Willie Ed Harpe was born on January 30, 1954, in Morgan, Georgia. He was the son of Wardell Harpe Sr., and Mae Francis Williams-Harpe. He was the second eldest sibling in a family of six boys: Clifford, Willie, Wardell Jr., Arthur C., Jerome, Dan, and Clark. Willie grew up in Tildenville and later relocated to Orlando. He completed his high school education at Evans High School.

Willie worked several years as a migrate worker, traveling back and forth from Florida to New York. He began his career as a truck driver at A1 Block Company and later joined Waste Management. He worked for Walt Disney World, Reedy Creek, until he retired.

Willie enjoyed life. Willie was married to the love of his life, Ruth Ann Givens-Harpe for 52 years. He has 3 sons and 2 daughters. During his younger years he loved to roller skate. He was one of the best skaters on the floor. He loved fishing, traveling and going to sporting events. He enjoyed the company of his family during the Harp Family Reunions. In his later years, Willie enjoyed spending time with his wife Ruth, traveling with the Progressive Seniors of Apopka, working in the yard, and tending to his 2 dogs; Jackie and Peewee.

He was preceded in death by his father, Wardell Harpe Sr., mother Mae Francis Williams-Harpe, son Wesley Harp, grandson Devarus Davis, brothers Clifford Harpe and Dan Harpe, Stepmother, Nina McCall-Harpe.

Willie was survived by his dedicated wife, Ruth Ann Harpe, sons, William Harp (Enitra), Sherrod Campbell (Nicole), daughters, Emiley Slayton (Lorenzo), Allie Harpe, brothers, Wardell Harpe Jr., Arthur C. Harpe, (Sandra), Jerome Harpe, Cris Harpe, (Shatonia), Roger Harpe, sisters, Yvonne Cummings, Julie Harpe-Miller, grandchildren, William Jr., Averi, Mailani, Jeremy Jr., uncle, Roosevelt Harp, aunts, Mary G Harp, Louise Harp, Mary Harp, Marie Hank, brother-in-laws, Laron Givens, Allen Givens Jr., sister-in-laws, Trilbye Givens-Haggins (Emmitt), Diane Givens-Mathews (Gregory); hosts of nieces, nephews, cousins and sorrowing friends.
