

Willie James Martin, Jr.

August 24, 1979 - March 18, 2023

Willie James Martin, Jr. was born August 24, 1979, in Nyack, New York, to the late Willie James Martin, Sr. and Priscilla Faye Welsh. Priscilla moved Willie here to Kissimmee at the age of 10.

Willie attended the Osceola Public Schools and obtained his GED and went on to receive his certificate of masonry. Besides his masonry work, Willie was employed as a painter at Walt Disney.

Willie was known for his witty personality and ability to make others around him laugh. Loved by his family and friends, who now share fond memories of his cooking skills and his contribution to the homeless community. Willie's dedication to feeding the homeless and helping to provide shelter for many of them within in his small community was a need that he tried to meet at every opportunity that presented itself.

He leaves to cherish his memories:

“ I still can't believe you're gone 🥹🥹🥹 You really messed me up with this one big head 💔 You were the realest person I met out here. Truly cared about others, and was a protector for those who needed it. I just wish you could call me nerd one last time 😭 You'll be forever loved and missed. As you would say..."You can't make this 'ish up..smh" Forever Rest Easy 🙏❤️
