

Willie James Rowell, Sr.

May 22, 1960 - January 21, 2015

Willie J. Rowell, Sr. was born May 22, 1960 in Orlando, Florida to Everlean Rowell and Ferrie Rowel. He was a long time residence of Orlando, Florida. He attended the public schools of Orange County and was a 1977 graduate of Evans High School. He worked as a Chef at Walt Disney World from where he later retired.

On November 4, 1983, Willie married Deavia Morgan. They were married for twenty-two years.

Later in life he confessed Christ at Open Door Ministries of Orlando, Florida and attended there until he became very ill and could no longer attend service.

The Lord in His infinite wisdom deemed it timely on January 21, 2015 to call our beloved Willie from his earthly Tabernacle of clay to his eternal home in glory. His transition left a void in the hearts of his family and friends which can never be filled and he will be greatly missed by them all.

“Gone But Never Forgotten” Parents, Ferrie and Everlean Rowell, grandparents, Tom and Bell White (Granny), uncles, Lee Andrew White, Willie White, Collie White, one nephew, Ferrie Rowell.
