

Willie Mae Taylor

October 21, 1945 - March 1, 2022

Willie Mae Taylor (Aunt Will to most), was born October 21, 1945 in Fitzgerald, Georgia to parents, Joshua Taylor, Sr. and Daisy Taylor. The family relocated to Florida and she was educated in the Osceola School System.

In 1985, Willie Mae married Berhane Haile. She worked in the Food Industry for years and later found employment in the dry cleaning business as a presser. Her greatest joy was spending time with family and making sure everyone had a delicious home cooked meal. She also loved to listen to music and dance.

Willie Mae had a remarkable sense of humor and her infectious laugh resonated from her heart. She had a special love for the Lord that was evident in the things she did for others. Her favorite song was, "The Lord Will Make A Way Somehow".

She was preceded in her homecoming by her Parents: Joshua Taylor, Sr. and Daisy Taylor; Sisters: Helen Mincey, Janette Dillard, and Annie Laura Harge (Norma).

She leaves to cherish her memory: Brother, Joshua Taylor, Jr. (Joyce) of Baltimore, Maryland.

She opened her doors to many in need of shelter, love and acceptance.

There's a host of family members that she acted as an extended mother for: Lucinda Stephens (Willie), Peter Harge, Jimmy Harge (deceased), Gloria Harge, Roberta Harge, Laura Ann Harge (deceased), Erica Spear, Chris Jones (deceased), Christopher White (Teeter), and Jaquez Jones. Special Caregivers: Catherine Williams (niece), William Stephens (Pam) and Claudine Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other sorrowing family and friends.
