

Wilson Bien-Aime

January 17, 1988 - June 7, 2014

Wilson Bien-Aime was born January 17 1988 in Miami, Florida to Immacula & Fortilus. He moved to Orlando at the age of 9. He started dancing at the age of 3 after being inspired by none other than the king of pop, Michael Jackson. Since then he has strived to be the best dancer he can ever be. It was not until high school that he decided that he should be a well rounded dancer. During his attendance at Dr. Phillips High School, he started to train in the fields of Ballet, Jazz and Modern dancing. Under the watchful eye of the dance instructor of the school, Mrs. Katherine Follensbee, Wilson was introduced into the wonderful world of dance. Since then he has worked with numerous dance affiliated companies such as VOCI Dance Co. and The Orlando Opera. He is now working with a nonprofit organization called Champion of Choices and a few local organizations such as Rhythm & Beat Dance. He's also working with an upcoming artist known as Mr. J-White. With a name like Bien-Aime (meaning good friend in French) you can't go wrong. Wilson is continuing his dream on becoming the best he can be and is sharing his experience and knowledge of dancing by teaching at Spotlight Dance Center and enjoying every moment of it.

He is the father of three children Isaiah, Elijah and Jeana. He married his beautiful wife Christina in 2010.

He leaves to cherish precious memories to his beautiful wife Christina;

“ I met Wilson three years ago when I taught his son. He was always smiling and had such a big heart. You could tell how much he loved his little ones and that was so endearing! Well wishes, prayers and hugs go out to his family! I know he will be missed.

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your loved one. In the Bible, a man named Job raised the question: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?” Then he answered: “I shall wait [in the grave] until my relief comes. [God] will call, and I myself shall answer.” (Job 14:14, 15) What a joy it will be when that time arrives and the dead are reunited with their loved ones!
