“ Mama, my dearest mama I'm missing you so much. I stay awake at nights just thinking about you, it's so difficult to fall asleep just knowing that you are not here with us. I am trying to stay busy just to let the days go by but it's hard I am finding it easier to cry these days but there is still an emptiness that I cannot explain. Mama I will always love and cherish the precious memories of our days together how we laugh at our silly jokes and our good shopping experiences. Mama you were my queen and that's why you left behind prince and princesses to mourn our loss. I will always carry your memories in my heart ❤️ I love you mama. 🌸🌹🌺🌻🌼. May you continue to Sleep in Peace.

“ As you mourn the loss of your love one, take comfort in knowing that God promises He will never leave you but will be with you always. He knows what is best. Hold on to the memories of your love one for comfort knowing that she is gone to a better place where there is no worries about covid 19. Take strength from your friends and family and always remember that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Mama my dear mama, I am at loss for words I miss you so much. I can't cry, I can't eat, I can't sleep. As I lay here staring at the ceiling I'm just trying to reflect on the good times we had. We prayed together, we went shopping together we cooked we ate and you left me without a warning. I am empty I am drained I cannot find the strength to fill the void. Mama when I look at your pictures from our cruises, dinners, church attendances and family get togethers or just our every day life it brings some form of comfort but it's not nearly the same as being in your presence. Mama you are gone but will certainly never be forgotten, thanks for the many prayers you sent up for your children, you will live in our hearts forever and ever. We love ❤️ you mama.

“ On February 28, 2021, our heavenly father decided to call my mom home to glory. It's a very sad time for the family because losing a loved one who is so dear to our heart is not easy. My mom felt sick for a short time and was hospitalized a little over a week where she succumb to her illness. She did not suffer, she remained conscious throughout the entire time where she communicated with all of her children who prayed with her constantly. Both day and night mama was communicating with her God. I know mama is at a better place right now resting in the arms of Jesus. The family craved your prayers at this time.

Mama we are not going to weep and mourn. Love ones let's give God thanks for mama's life here on earth 🌍. Mama had loved and cared for everyone that crosses her path. Mama's task on earth is ended Our God as called her home. Let us all cherish the precious memories and practice the good and godly morals she had instilled in us. (When we all get to heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be).

Mama I miss you more than words can say. Who I am going to call during my lunch hour and when I get home from work. Mother sometimes I sit down listening for your call, I know that I wouldn't have you forever, but I wasn't ready for you to go yet. Mother, I love you dear ❤️ sleep well in the arms of our Lord and Savior. You'll forever be missed.

“ My deepest condolences to the family (Jean, Courtney..Adian) Doreen (Sheree), Pansy and all others on the passing of your mom, grandma, great grandma.

I do not have to remind you of the wonderful qualities and deep love she had for you her family and for the many who came in contact with her.

I am honored to be one of the many who met Mrs Williams. She had this contagious smiles that i think contributed to her non-wrinkled face and youthful age.

Of all the memories she left her family love, laughter, great shape, a love for fashion/hats and an instill of humility, mildness, unity and faith, endurance through trials.. What a virtuous lady Mrs Edwards was!..Her love for God and living the life fir Him was examples set for her children to live by examples.

I will remember you always Ms Edwards for all your fondest qualities. But i know dead is a temporary sleep. I know you will rise from your sleep at the Resurrection Call.

To the Edwards Families please stay comforted. Pray to our God for needed strength. You and i will await the fulfillment of the Promise at Rev 21: 3-4.(

..the last enemy 'death' will be done away with.

Jean, Doreen; Thanks for extending to me the open invitation to get to know your beautiful and loved mom Mrs Edwards.
