“ I send my deepest condolences, as well as lots of prayers out to Ziera's family and friends. Meeting Ziera, freshman year at Saint Leo, I immediately knew that she was a great person who in turned became a great friend. My greatest memories would be of our semester together, trying to battle out calculus; spending time studying and laughing, but in turn helping each other out as best as we could. It was a blessing knowing Ziera and spending time with her. With much faith and belief, I wouldn't doubt that God has a special place for Ziera up in heaven.

“ I've known Ziera since our Freshmen year at Leo. I loved her! She was a nice, kind-hearted woman. She was the quiet type but once you got the chance to know her she was just as crazy as everyone else. Always had me laughing! My condolences go out to her family and friends. She will be missed dearly.
